

MATTHEW LARKIN

Matthew Larkin was appointed Organist and Director of Music at St. Thomas's Anglican Church in August, 2017. He received his early music education as a boy chorister at St. George's Cathedral in Kingston, Ontario. He was Organ Scholar and later Assistant Organist of St. George's while in high school, after which he attended the University of Toronto. In 1995, he was appointed Director of Music at St. Matthew's Church, Ottawa. In 2002-2003 he served as Music Associate at the Cathedral Church of St. James, Toronto, and was then called to Ottawa's Christ Church Cathedral, where he was Organist and Director of Music for 14 years. He is well regarded as an accompanist, composer, conductor, recitalist, and recording artist. Matthew is a Fellow of the Royal Canadian College of Organists and the recipient of the Queen Elizabeth II Diamond Jubilee Medal (for his work with young choristers) and received a Doctorate in Sacred Theology (honoris causa) from Thorneloe University, Sudbury. Matthew maintains a busy schedule of concerts and recitals, and has performed throughout North America, Europe, Great Britain, and in China.
